

KIM MAHARAJ – REINING CANADA PRESIDENT AND WESTERN CANADIAN NRHA REPRESENTATIVE (2017/2018)

Kim has been a member of the Reining Canada BOD, and the Western Canada NRHA BOD member for many years. She continues to be a member of the NRHA Affiliate Committee and a member of the Crisis Review Committee for the Reining Horse Sport Foundation. She has, in the recent past, been a member of the BOD of her local Affiliate CCRHA. She has competed as a Non Pro competitor for many years but now cheers on her daughter Micaela and her horse Corona from the side lines. She enjoys scribing and helping out at the shows. Kim is a Registered Nurse and she and her husband, Ian, live in Oak Bluff, Manitoba. They have three Children Ethan, Matthew, and Micaela, and own and manage their own Medical Corporation with two offices. Kim also owns, in partnership with her son Matthew, a Renovation Company that buys, renovates and sells homes in Winnipeg. Kim has always enjoyed the sport of reining and is committed to protecting the interests of all Canadian Reiners.
